Case Reports – Special Supplement

Journal of the College of Physicians and Surgeons (JCPSP) has been receiving a large number of case reports from within and out of the country like India, Iran, Turkey, Saudi Arabia, and United Kingdom.

It is the policy of the Journal to accommodate only three case reports in a regular monthly issue, thus a huge number of case reports have piled up before the editorial desk.

Due to the above locus, the Editorial Board has, as usual, decided to bring out a special supplement, which is the first of the current year and scheduled for June, 2016.

We hope the readers and people associated with medical profession would definitely gain from our this endeavour.
